TELL IT LIKE IT IS...

"I can't believe what a difference it has made in our work environment. Across the board, my staff and I now really enjoy coming to work and feel we relate better with each other and our patients. It has been a life and career changing event for everyone in our office... IOD takes personal care of their clients. We felt (and still feel) like we are their only clients in the way we are treated and cared for especially with follow up questions and suggestions."

*Alison House, OD & Owner
House Vision Center*

"[Coaching for Commitment, Ed. 3] it's a coaches coach book and rookie coach book all in one. Really a good read...and a must for many managers today..."

*Matt Gavin
Senior Vice President
WAMU (Washington Mutual - now Chase)*

"They delivered beyond my expectations!"

*Beth Hobbs
Director of Education
Gillette Children's Specialty Healthcare*

"Very well designed education and training--best I have ever experienced in 30 years of professional work."

*Manager
Gillette Children's Specialty Healthcare*

"IOD will work to understand a particular corporate culture - or even a specific group within a large corporation. Their knowledge of and passion for the material make their classes fun while driving a behavior change."

Fortune 50 Company Vice President

"[IOD] stands out among other companies because of the facilitator's commitment to the [coaching] process. It's a logical process!"

*Betty Rivard
Executive Vice-President of Human Resources
Gillette Children's Specialty Healthcare*

"There was a corporate goal of creating a culture around coaching (rather than directing)... The classes that IOD delivered were instrumental in moving the company in that direction."

Fortune 50 Company Vice President

"The coaching helped me recognize opportunities and to take advantage of some personal strengths and skills that led to increased success in my position and recognition of others."
